

Daniel Remick, MD

AAPath Senior Fellow Since 2020

Email: remickd@bu.edu

EDUCATION

Undergraduate Degree: B.S. Chemistry, U of Minnesota-Duluth summa cum laude with honors (1978).

Graduate/Professional Degree: M.D., Mayo Medical School (1982). Postgraduate Education: U of Michigan Anatomic Pathology (1984), Immunopathology (1986). Board

Certification: Board Certification – Anatomic pathology American Board of Pathology (1986), recertified 2000.

SERVICE

Service as Pathology Chair: Chair, Department of Pathology & Laboratory Medicine, Boston University Chobanian and Avedisian School of Medicine 2006 – 2019.

Leadership Roles Before, During, and After Service as Chair: Assistant Dean of Admissions, U of Michigan 2002 – 06; Deputy Medical Examiner, Washtenaw County (Michigan) 1985 – 2006; Chair U Michigan Promotions and Tenure Committee 1999-2000; Chair, U Michigan Animal Use Committee 1999-2000; Mentor: Five K08 awardees Chair, Finance Committee Faculty Practice Plan Boston University 2011-14; President, New England Society of Pathologists, 2013-14; President, American Society of Investigative Pathology 2017-2018; Chair, Research Committee, Association of Pathology Chairs (APC, now AAPath) 2014 – 17; Chair, Advocacy Committee, APC 2011-13; Program Chair, Society of Leukocyte Biology Annual Meeting 2014; Program Chair, Shock Society Annual Meeting, 2006; President, Shock Society 2010; Editor-in-Chief, Shock 2021 – present; Member of editorial boards, Science Translational Medicine, Academic Pathology, American Journal of Pathology, Journal of Immunology; Charter member NIH study section Mentored Clinical and Basic Science Review Committee, Chair, multiple NIH study sections including Surgery, Anesthesiology and Trauma. Other Academic Positions After Service as Chair: None.

AREAS OF PROFESSIONAL INTEREST

Research: Inflammatory responses with particular emphasis on sepsis; Biobanking; Oxidative stress regulation of immune responses; Pathogenesis of asthma, using a novel mouse model based on extracts of house dust from children with asthma. Clinical: Autopsy pathology. Educational: Course Director Immunology Medical School and Immunology, Graduate School; Pathology residency director. Mentoring: Trainees from High School to Post-doctoral Fellows. PI on T32 Immunobiology of Trauma grant 2012 – 2027. Current Interests: Continued interest in sepsis and immunology education.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Honors and Awards: Gustave Dammin Lecture, Brigham & Women's Hospital 2018, Keynote speaker Advances in Inflammation Research, Brown University 2013, Keynote Speaker, European Shock Society, Vienna Austria 2013, John Sander and Nancy Dunkel Lecture, Michigan State University 2012, John Spitzer Distinguished Lecture, Louisiana State University 2010, American Red Cross Certificate for Extraordinary Personal Action, 2006, Burroughs Welcome Visiting Professor St. Georges Hospital, London England, Class

Representative, Mayo Medical School 1980 – 82. Professional Achievements of Which You are Most Proud: Leading the effort to have the American Board of Pathology establish the physician scientist track for board certification. The board approved this designation in 2016; Creating a new degree certificate at Boston University Path to Path, a one-year training program to enhance medical students credentials so that they may successfully match into a pathology residency program.

OUTSIDE INTERESTS

Hobbies: Hiking; Reading, writing a book on the impact of climate change. Volunteer Activities: Sierra Club; Political activities.